WHAT TO EXPECT

Extras Are Self-Funded
Anything not listed in the itinerary — optional tours, snacks, shopping — is paid by you directly.

Prepare Cash
Bring cash for shopping at Malioboro Street — not every stall takes cards or QR payments.

Sunrise Departure
Day 4 sets off at 5:00 AM for Mount Merapi — get ready for an early start.

Lots of Walking
Expect plenty of walking at Borobudur, Malioboro Street, and the city tour — most activities are outdoors.

Rainy Season
November to March brings heavy rain to Yogyakarta — pack clothing and shoes that handle rain well.

Triple Room Bed
Triple-sharing rooms come with 3 single beds where available; an extra bed is added if a triple-bed room isn't.

Meals
Lunch and dinner are local Indonesian food; breakfast is a hotel buffet with local and continental options.

Bumpy Jeep Ride
Jeep rides at Timang Beach and Mount Merapi get bumpy — pregnant travellers, people with disabilities or injuries, and infants should sit these out.

Ground Entrance Only
Borobudur's included ticket covers the temple grounds only — entry to the temple structure itself costs extra.

One Add-On Per Person
Locations with multiple optional add-ons allow only one per person, due to time restrictions.

Combined Praying Areas
Most attractions sit outside Jogja city, so only small surau are available, usually with combined praying areas for men and women.
